Opening of the Citrus Fair at Colton.

STEVE WHITE GETS A PRESENT.

The Governor of Arizona Makes a Number of Appointments—Hotel Sold.

Special Dispatch to the HERALD.

COLTON, March 11.—The Colton Citrus Fair opened to-day at 11 o'clock without any addresses. The music was furnished by the Los Angeles City Band. There were a large number of visitors in town, principally from Riverside, San Bernardino, Lagonia, Redlands, Crafton, Highlands. Consequently all trains were crowded to their utmost capacity and the hotels filled to overflowing. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe excursion due in Los Angeles to-morrow, will be held over here in order to give the excursionists an opportunity to visit the exhibition. The displays are large and beautiful, embracing specimens of all varieties of oranges, lemons and limes, olives, raisins, dried and preserved fruits, wines, jellies, jams, deciduous fruits, marble and granite. All the fruits exhibited are ripe and free from scalding. The displays of Colton Terrene, Riverside and Crafton were especially fine. A wealth of flowers of every hue and description is displayed. Through the exhibition hall, which is also decorated with palm leaves, festoons and devices festively made up with different kinds of fruits. To-morrow evening, before the close of the fair, literary exercises will take place.

IT RAINS PRESENTS.

The California Senate Sings Jewelry all Around.

Special Dispatch to the HERALD.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—At 11 o'clock, on motion of Senator Jones, of Butte, all further legislation was postponed for the evening and, at the suggestion of Senator Goucher, Lieutenant-Governor Waterman was summoned before the bar of the Senate to give an account of his proceedings during the session. Upon his appearance he was presented by Senator Yell, of Mendocino, on behalf of the Senate, with an elegant and costly gold watch and chain. The presiding officer responded feelingly and promised to use the watch at the next session of the Legislature to call the five-minute limit on the members. Senator White, of Los Angeles, was presented with handsome and valuable set of silverware. Senator Wilson, of San Francisco, made the pre-entertainment speech, and the recipient responded in an able and pleasant address of thanks. Ed. Hamilton, of Alameda, the efficient Secretary of the Senate, and the popular and obliging Sergeant-at-Arms, John Wilcox, were presented with costly gold headed canes of elegant and unique designs.

Senator P. J. Murphy, of San Francisco, presented a set of resolutions, handsomely engrossed, to Lieutenant-Governor Waterman, expressing the esteem of the individual Senators for their presiding officer. The resolutions were signed by every member of the Senate. On motion of Senator White they were unanimously adopted.

THE ARIZONA LEGISLATURE Adjourns After Confirming Gubernatorial Nominations.

PREScott, A. T., March 11.—The Seventeenth Legislature adjourned last night. The Governor nominated and the Council confirmed Cameron H. King, Commissioner of Immigration; John H. Marion, Territorial Treasurer; Hugo Richards, Auditor; J. F. Meader, Adjutant-General. One hundred and two bills were passed. Governor Zulick vetoed item number seven of the Appropriating bill, giving $7200 to the Federal Judges, because such action conflicted with the Federal Statute; also the bill providing that a lottery corporation, under Territorial supervision, pay $9000 monthly to support the public schools and to defray the expenses of erecting public buildings.

MURDERER GOLDENSON. He is Not a Chip of the Old Block.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Attorney Regensburger, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in the Goldenson case, stated to-day, to a Post reporter, that he expected to prove that M. Goldenson is only the reputed father of the prisoner. If this fact is established the hereditary-instantaneity plea will fall to the ground.

The Court Mollified.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Edward Goldenson, brother of the defendant in the Goldenson murder trial, who was fined $500 yesterday for refusing to answer the questions of the Court, had his fine cancelled to-day. He explained to the Court that he had understood his attorney had told him not to reply to the questions of the Court, whereas he had been told not to answer the questions of the prosecuting attorney. The explanation was satisfactory and the Court ordered the cancellation of the fine.

Decided in Favor of Defendants.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—Judge Van Vleet to-day rendered a long written opinion in the case of the People vs. ex-Secretary of State Drury Melone and his bondsmen, Robert Hamilton and James Carolan; and also in the other case of the People vs. Drury Melone. In both cases the Judge held that the demurrs of the defendants should be sustained. The judgment in each case is that the action be dismissed and that costs be awarded to the defendants.

The Chief Justice's Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—The will of Robert F. Morrison, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, was filed for probate to-day by his widow, Mrs. Julia Morrison. The estate is stated to be worth $80,000, all of which is bequeathed to her.

Adjournment of the Legislature.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—Both Houses of the Legislature have adopted a concurrent resolution to adjourn at noon to-morrow.

Adjourned.

HELENA, M. T., March 11.—The Legislature adjourned at midnight last night.

LEGISLATIVE.

THE SENATE.

SACRAMENTO, March 11.—A message from the Governor announced his approval of Senate Bill 67, regulating the hours of street-car employees.

A Constitutional amendment was introduced amending that already passed, relating to the Judiciary Department. This was necessary on account of the death of Chief Justice Morrison. It provides that the Justices shall elect the Chief Justice, to hold office for two years. If a vacancy occurs the Governor shall appoint a person to hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term. Vrooman asked permission to introduce, out of order, the bill providing for a special election to be held April 12, 1887, which shall be submitted to the people such amendments to the Constitution as had been adopted at the present session of the Legislature. It was declared a case of urgency and passed.

THE ASSEMBLY.

In the Assembly to-day the Irrigation bill, repealing Section 1422 of the Civil Code and to reserve from the operation of said repeal rights already vested, was finally passed—42 ayes, 24 nays.

The last bill introduced this session was presented to-day by Variole in the Assembly. It is a Mechanics' lien bill.

Owing to a mistake of thirty days in the Senate amendment, which was not discovered until to-day while the measure was in the Governor's hands, the proposed law was void. It was re-introduced as corrected and passed under suspension of the Constitutional provisions in both Houses.

The Governor notified the Assembly to-day that he had approved the bill of Mathews, of San Benito, to include in that county a portion of Fresno and Merced.

CALIFORNIA'S PROSPERITY, As Observed by a Chicago Commission Merchant.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Mr. Porter, of a Chicago firm of commission merchants, speaking of the material prosperity of California, expressed his surprise at the extent to which tourists and immigrants were coming into California. He referred to the effect this was having on Florida, saying: "Californians have no idea how much they are profiting to the injury of Florida. I have had good opportunities of knowing this from actual observation, I know that the greater part of travel which in the past has gone to Florida in the winter has this year come to California. This is confirmed by actual conditions now existing throughout the State. Every hotel is filled to its utmost capacity, not only in this city but in Los Angeles, San Diego and many other places in the State."

FRUIT-GROWING INDUSTRY

NOT to be Crippled by the Interstate Commerce Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Anxiety has prevailed among California fruit-growers since the Interstate Commerce bill became a law lest its enforcement might prevent fruit shipments to the East at living rates and thus ruin the industry in the State. "We shall make no difference in fruit rates" on account of the law unless we are compelled to," said General Western Freight Agent Eccles, of the Union Pacific, to-day. "We have been very much worried about the matter for some time and have decided that we can classify all fruits under one head and make a low rate on them without giving liability to the charge of making special rates. The intention of the railroad companies is to reduce the rate for fruit shipments to the extent that to increase them."

THE FINANCIAL QUESTION.

NO Danger Through the Present Pressure for Small Coin.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—In conversation with an Associated Press reporter to-night, as to the possibility of a financial panic resulting from the accumulation of the surplus in the Treasury, after all payable bonds are called, Treasurer Jordan said that he saw nothing in the recent situation which was at all likely to cause a panic. There was nothing in the situation to excite such fear. Should a panic occur, however, Jordan said that he would have the full power to go into the market and buy bonds in order to relieve the financial strain, although he could not, of course, speak for an administration of which he would soon cease to be a member. He had no reason to suppose the resource would not be applied as it had been with success on other occasions. The only trouble he apprehended was the pressure for small currency; this pressure was being felt even now, and in his opinion would continue until about the 10th of April. The Government was meeting this demand as fast as possible, but could never supply it as fast as desirable. At this season of the year there was always a demand for small currency, and the Treasury was unable to issue silver certificates as fast as they were called for. This was owing to the want of provision on the part of the Treasury Department, but to the failure of the Deficiency bill, which appropriated money for the issue of silver certificates. The Department had ample facilities but not sufficient money for that purpose. There was no reason for alarm; however, it was simply a spring demand for small currency, and there were about $47,000,000 of five-dollar and ten-dollar gold coins in the New York Sub-Treasury alone, and about $100,000,000 more in small money available with which to meet any such emergency. The Department would supply silver certificates as far as possible, and any additional demand would simply entail on the banks a difference in cash between the transportation of silver certificates and other currency.

AFTER HODLERS.

Seizing Documents for the Inspection of the Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, March 11.—An important move was made in the prosecution of the "boddy" county officials. Shortly before noon an assistant of the State Attorney's office, accompanied by six city detectives, entered the rooms of the County Commissioners, where, armed with subpoenas, every record and document belonging to the institution for the last two years, was seized. At about the same moment a similar movement was made at the county hospital and asylum. The papers and books were then taken to the Grand Jury room for inspection. The entire proceeding was carried on so quietly and speedily that very few of the suspects were aware of what had transpired until after the papers had been taken.

A COLORADO FIRE.

DENVER, March 11.—An Aspen special to the Republican says that a fire broke out in Ryan's Block shortly after 11 o'clock last night and that the building with its contents was completely destroyed. The losses amount to $25,000. Among the losers are H. Wilson, proprietor, $10,000; A. Lessore, furniture, $3000; Mrs. Ryan, building and furniture, $3000; O. J. Downing, building and meat shop, $3000. The insurance amounts only to $8000. There were several very narrow escapes. All the inmates were driven out in their nightclothes and two were more or less burned.

Beggars Cannot be Choosers.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 11.—Henry Artis (colored) was hanged at Goldsboro to-day for the murder of his step-daughter in November last. During the trial and imprisonment he disclaimed all knowledge of the crime, but to-day on the scaffold he confessed his guilt. The coolness and nerve of the criminal were remarkable. He said he was going to God rather than to the scaffold with faith and belief in his eternal happiness than to live in ten thousand worlds like this.

Broke the Market.

CHICAGO, March 11.—The failure of P. F. Houghton, free dealer in wheat, was announced on 'Change shortly before 1 o'clock. The close and the selling of his long wheat served to break the market. He was long about 350,000 bushels.

INTERESTED IN A RACE.

NEW YORK, March 11.—A great deal of interest is manifested among Eastern turpentine over Baldwin's recent challenge. All sporting papers devote considerable space to it, and the hope is generally expressed that the match will come off.

THE B. & O. AGONY.

Idle Gossip From Various Sources but Nothing Positive.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Negotiations between Garrett and the Richmond Terminal Company have fallen through and the deal is off. A new proposition is now being considered by Garrett, and negotiations are now on foot for the transfer of the Baltimore and Ohio to a syndicate of private bankers.

BALTIMORE, March 11.—A private dispatch received in this city this afternoon from New York says that the deal is not off, but that it will be consummated.

Mr. Garrett's attention was called to the newspaper reports regarding the proposed railway arrangements.

He said that whatever arrangements were made would commend themselves to the community of Baltimore and be recognized as protective, wise and valuable to all interests involved.

The following statement is made by one of the syndicate which is about to procure control of the Baltimore and Ohio railway: President Garrett has granted an extension of time in which to take up the majority of stock.

It seems generally believed in this city that the great railway deal is practically off as far as Mr. Sully is concerned, and the reason given is that he was unable to raise the necessary amount of money in the time given, but no one can be found to express the opinion that the great scheme is not being patched.

A gentleman known to be in the confidence of Mr. Garrett to-night stated that another and more powerful party has made an offer to buy the Board of State Water Commissioners.

Brierly's bill, to establish a State Board of Water Commissioners, is likely to become a law. It has finally passed the Senate with some amendments, which will doubtless be concurred in by the House, and the bill will go to the Governor for approval.The HERALD has already discussed this measure and doubted its efficacy to secure all the benefits which the author of the bill hopes will result from it. The object of the measure is to establish a Commission of five, to be appointed by the Governor, at a salary of $4000 each. These Commissioners are to examine the subject of irrigation in all its phases; to inquire into the subject of watercourses and water rights throughout the State; to frame a complete code of laws with respect to irrigation; to report fully the result of their inquiries and recommend a code of laws or courses of legislation on the subject to the Governor for transmission to the Legislature to meet in 1889; to attend upon the Legislature for the purpose of explaining the subject and their propositions, and facilitating the passage of needed laws. In the performance of their duties the Commissioners are required to thoroughly familiarize themselves with the physical and other data in the State Engineer's office; to examine the field throughout the State in the light of such data; to take and record testimony, receive statements, hear arguments and explanations from persons locally interested in the subject of their labors, and for this purpose to hold open meetings in the chief town of each county interested in irrigation, mining, or the improvement of the navigable streams of the State; to collect or cause to be collected such additional data with reference to facts of water supply and storage, with reference to irrigation and mining, and the preservation of water-courses, etc., as may be necessary or expedient for their purpose; to examine and study the existing laws and decisions which bear upon these subjects in California, as well as the laws and systems of administration of watercourses, water supply and use of waters in other States and nations; to point out how private rights in natural water courses, such as may be recognized and insisted upon by the Supreme Court, may be most readily set aside or extinguished, for the benefit of irrigation, by process of law; and to make public the results of their proceedings and deliberations from time to time by reports of progress to the Governor, and thus enlighten the public on the subject as the work goes on. These constitute the main features of the duties that will devolve upon the Commissioners, and they are enough, in all conscience. If any five men in the State can do the work laid out for them in this measure in a satisfactory manner in two years, or in five years, we shall be glad to know it. It is however, worth the trial, and the people will not be backward to aid the Commission in every way possible. The reason why we do not believe that this measure will result in all the benefits its friends hope for, is because no body of men—no matter how splendidly equipped by intellect, learning and experience they may be—can frame a system of laws that will prove satisfactory upon a subject so involved, and one that embraces so great a variety of interests, and touches so many different and diversified characteristics of soil, of topography, of rights and claims in water. Laws and rules and regulations that might work well in one locality might not suit another. Indeed, in the end it will be found that no general system of rule can be made to apply to every district. And this brings us to the core of our objection, and that is that the forced process of evolving a code to govern irrigation is opposed to all experience with reference to this class of laws. They are not made. They make themselves. They grow up from custom. They are the result of experience and time. Necessity points them out, and they make themselves. Each district will soon know exactly how it should be governed.
The circumstances of its location and the facilities or difficulties which nature offers or opposes to its successful irrigation will lay the foundations for the laws that ought to govern it. Nevertheless, we are not disposed to say that such a Commission as Mr. Brierly'swill establish a law not be made of value to the great interests which they are designed to benefit. The vast amount of information they will be enabled to secure will give the people of the State a clearer and better idea of the supreme importance of irrigation, and help them to realize what a mighty factor it is destined to become in the development of California to the highest degree of prosperity of which it is capable.The death of Captain James B.
Eads is exceedingly unfortunate at the present time. Had he lived until the completion of the Panama Canal, it is more than probable that the United States would have come to a realization of the necessity of adopting and carrying out his plan for a ship railway across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. He was a man of wonderful resources, both as an engineer and as an inventor. No man possessed greater power to overcome obstacles and to snatch success out of difficulties than Captain Eads.
To his energy and foresight was due the turreted flotilla of river steamers that finally opened the Mississippi from the Ohio to the sea during the war. His plan of jetties at the mouth of the Mississippi increased the water in the channel from eight to thirty feet, and saved New Orleans as a commercial port. We have no doubt whatever that his plan for carrying ships across the Mexican isthmus would have been a success, and therefore we look upon his death at this time as a national calamity.A COMMUNICATION in another column informs us that the bar of Los Angeles will meet to day to urge upon Governor Bartlett the nomination of Col. George H. Smith to the vacant Chief Justiceship. No better or more satisfactory nomination could be made by the Executive. Southern California is entitled to representation in the Supreme Bench, and Governor Bartlett should give due consideration to this fact by the appointment of a gentleman who will not only grace the position by his learning and legal ability, but be acceptable to the entire people of this part of the State.There has been shameful misrepresentation made by somebody to the Chicago papers about the small-pox in Los Angeles. Those papers have published the most exaggerated and damaging statements on the subject.
The Board of Trade last night took measures to contradict them by telegraph, and to let the people of the East know the exact facts. These lives have traveled with seven-league boots, but truth will overtake them.

LEGISLATIVE.

The "Herald's" Letter from Sacramento.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

SACRAMENTO, March 9, 1887.

NOT a little excitement was created to-day when the news spread around that a Republican member of the Assembly had been arrested for embezzlement. Your correspondent, in order to get all the facts, made a point to interview the gentleman and learn all the facts concerning the arrest and the cause thereof. His side of the story is very plain and simple, and is as follows: On the 24th of last November La Blanc was elected to the Legislature by a small majority. He beat a man named O'Connor, who ran against him. La Blanc learned that, as his majority was very small, O'Connor would contest his election.
La Blanc paid no attention to the matter at the time, and did not go and get his certificate until the 26th of November.
As soon as he got his certificate O'Connor served notice on him of his intention to contest his election. This he did while he was standing on Montgomery street, in San Francisco. He happened at the time to be standing near the office of Jordan & Bull, and Mr. Jordan came along at that moment.
La Blanc stated the whole matter to Jordan and enquired of that gentleman whether he would be a good lawyer to attend to the case. Mr. Jordan recommended Mr. Bull, his own partner, at the same time telling him that the contest would cost him nothing, as the State paid all the expenses, it being an established custom. La Blanc told Mr. Bull and stated his case to him, and the lawyer, who took his chance and leave the matter entirely with La Blanc. When the matter came before the Election Committee it was found that O'Connor had no case, and a bill of costs for $1050 was filed by Mr. Bull for the expense of the contest, and among the items was a charge of $750 for attorney's fees. This bill the committee cut down to $500, allowing $400 for attorney's fees, and $100 for incidental expenses. The warrant was ordered drawn in La Blanc's name, and he drew the money from the State Treasury. He told him that he had drawn the money, and wanted to settle up with Mr. Bull.
La Blanc wanted to know how much he was going to charge him for attending to his case, at the same time saying that he had no trouble in attending to it, but he wanted to do the right thing by him.
Mr. Bull told him that he wanted all that the committee had allowed for attorney's fees, and would expect La Blanc to give him the full amount. La Blanc refused to give him the full amount, and continued several of the old members of the Legislature, who had gone through the ordeal of a contest before, and got their advice on the matter. They told La Blanc that to divide $500 with his lawyer would be a fair thing. Senator Wilson also advised La Blanc that he thought one-half of what the committee allowed, would be a reasonable and satisfactory fee for Mr. Bull.
La Blanc then went to Mr. Bull and told him that he had been advised to divide with him, but that he would do better than that and give him $300. This offer was refused, and nothing short of the full amount would satisfy Mr. Bull.
La Blanc then went to Mr. Jordan, and told him that he had been advised to divide with him before the bar of the House and expose him. La Blanc was not to be buddled in this way, and asked Mr. Jordan, who is the law partner of Mr. Bull, tent for La Blanc, and told him if he did not settle up with Mr. Bull, he would bring him before the bar of the House and expose him. La Blanc was not to be buddled in this way, and asked Mr. Jordan,
who is the law partner of Mr. Bull, tent
for La Blanc, and told him if he did not settle up with Mr. Bull, he would bring him before the bar of the House and expose him. La Blanc was not to be bud-

for La Blanc, and told him if he did not settle up with Mr. Bull, he would bring

DAILY HERALD.

GEORGE JONES,

Proprietor of the New York "Times."

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

He Speaks Good Words for Cleve-land and Extols California's Climate.

Last evening the register at the National House bore the modest name of "Geo. Jones." This gentleman with his daughter, Mrs. Ireland, arrived over the Southern Pacific. Mr. Jones is to-day one of the most extensively known journalists in the world, being the proprietor of the great New York Times. A HERALD reporter called upon the gentleman last night and was received with that urbanity which is always characteristic of a great newspaper man. Mr. Jones is about 60 years of age, but although time has silvered his hair and rheumatism has stiffened his joints a little, forty years of active newspaper life have not served to soot his temper and every wrinkle in his face shows kindness and frankness. Mr. Jones said, "This is my first visit to the Pacific coast. I have always been so busy that I feared I should never get a chance to see this favored portion of earth, but my daughter, Mrs. Ireland, has been very ill and she expressed a desire to come to California and I gave her leave. I am glad to state that the trip, which took us twelve days, was beneficial to my daughter and I am satisfied that under the genial skies of this incomparable place she will soon regain her wonted good health. I am feeling much better myself."

SLIGHTLY POLITICAL.

The reporter of a Republican morning paper was present and by a question got some startling political views from Mr. Jones, that is, the Republican reporter must have been startled. Mr. Jones said: "The Times opposed Blaine in 1884 and will oppose him again if he is nominated by the Republicans in 1888. He is a man whose whole policy is all for Blaine and the rest get what they can. He made innumerable mistakes during the last campaign and could hardly have a much better show of election had he remained in his modest Maine home, accepting an invitation to a dinner given by Jay Gould and Russell Sage was enough to damn him, and the famous 'Kum, Romanian and Rebellion' alliteration routed him horse, foot and dragon. As to whom the Republicans will nominate next time I can't say. Blaine is working for it with his whole soul and may get the nomination, but he will never be elected. The American people have not reached that stage where they will place the affairs of the nation in the hands of a Blaine. If I were allowed to place a man in nomination for the Presidency I should name Judge Walter Q. Gresham, of Indiana."

AS TO CLEVELAND.

"Yes, sir, Cleveland will be nominated by the Democrats for re-election. They can't do otherwise. He is the best man in the party. His administration has been a most admirable one and receives the approbation of the whole world. He is thoroughly honest and he is not working for self or party, but has an eye and thought single for the public good. He was the same way when Governor of New York. He stuck to his desk and worked for the State regardless whether he were nominated or elected President or not. Hill has lost prestige in New York by devoting more time to securing the Democratic nomination for the Presidency than to the affairs of State. But he won't reach, and Cleveland will be nominated. He is one of the most thoroughly honest men in the Nation. The only thing there ever was against him was the Maria Halpin scandal, and that proved to be nothing. By the way, Mrs. Cleveland is a most delightful lady, and she has made a wonderful number of friends for her husband. She is a beautiful neophyte, very politic, and enterprising in a charming manner. You can rest assured that Cleveland will carry New York next time. In reply to a question by the Republican reporter, Mr. Jones said: "You voted for Cleveland, and will do again. I am a strong Republican too, young man." The gentleman talked in a eulogistic strain of Cleveland's administration, for quite a while, and the conversation was changed to the subject of NEWSPAPERS.

Mr. Jones said: "Oh, the newspapers of New York are all getting along nicely. There has been no change of base excepting that the Herald has come out strongly in favor of Cleveland. Of course, as you know, the Sun opposes the present administration. It pretends to be Democratic, but is always sticking a knife in below the fifth rib of that party. The Trudeau is Mr. Blaine's organ, and the Sun is doing all it can to him. I am astonished at the excellence of the newspapers on this coast. They are full of local news. They do not have as much telegraph news as our papers, but then your readers do not demand it. The papers out here, considering the class of readers, are as good as the papers in the East. There is no need for Western people to take New York papers, as they get the same news in the papers published at home. We fill our papers with telegraphic news, but the papers out here get the gist of every thing we publish. We get our own foreign news—that is, without the aid of any news agency, but you people get it about the same time we do. I don't think much of this idea of making a magazine out of a daily paper on Sundays, but the Times does it because the other papers do. Generally the Sunday papers are filled up with a lot of swash that nobody has time to read, and if they had time they would be bored to death before they could wade through one of them. I don't believe in having cheap illustrations in newspapers, and the Times never does it. It is a lowering process and the cuts are always meretricious."

THE COAST CLIMATE.

Mr. Jones could not find words to express his delight at the soft climate of California. "I have been to Nice and all of the famous Continental health resorts, and the climate there is perfectly nasty and nothing like California. The changes are too abrupt in that country, and a person is either too hot or too cold. When a man comes back from Florida, he says the climate is worth $10 an acre, but the land isn't worth it—n." Here the climate is worth a great deal more than that and the land is valuable and productive." Mr. Jones stated that he would spend some months in California and might possibly invest in a little real estate in this city and county. He is more than delighted with California. He will visit Santa Barbara, San Diego and San Francisco before he leaves the coast.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

A Review of the Day's Transactions.

NEW YORK, March 11.—To-day was the dullest day in the stock market this week, and while prices were firm throughout most of the day, the trading was almost entirely professional, and, pending the final outcome of the Baltaire and Ohio deal operators were waiting. The opening was tame and uninteresting, but firm through advances over last evening's prices ranging from  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{3}{4}$  per cent. There was an inclination to heaviness in the early dealings, but this soon disappeared and prices were brought up to a shade above opening figures. The market then became exceedingly dull but remained firm. In the afternoon there was still no activity, a short period of indecision was succeeded by a general hardening of values. The last hour, however, was accompanied by weakness and early gains in many cases were recovered, West Point being the most noticeable for the decline established. Although the market closed on a rally it was heavy. Government bonds are dull and heavy. Government bonds are dull and heavy.

The Western Settler's Chosen Specific.

With every advance of emigration into the far West a new demand is created for Hostetter's Sarsaparilla Bitters. Every person who has resided in the salubrious climate of the United States, or in any of the other settled localities, on account of the miasma which rises from recently cleared land, particularly along the banks of rivers that have been dammed, or in the coal and oil mining emigrant soon learns, when he does not already know, that the Bitters afford the only sure protection against the changes, exposure and unaccustomed or unhealthy water or diet submit him to the most severe, hot, pustular and eruptive disease. No specific and preventive commensurate with its intrinsic merits, and is careful to keep on hand a restorative and promoter of health so implicitly to be relied upon in time of need.

Pullman Passengers.

The following passengers left yesterday on the 1:30 train: Mr. Church, R. C. Titus, R. T. Crane, Mr. Salisburg, J. T. Dickman, C. Lippett, J. Nelson, Mrs. Barn, J. N. Wiley, W. A. Robinson, O. B. Bidwell, W. L. Lochein, J. Hyde, Mr. Trebil, J. N. Dimond, H. Whetstone, Dr. C. G. Simpkins, Mr. Johnson, I. M. Wells, C. M. Lawrence, Mr. McMartin, Mr. Hawkins, J. L. Truslow, C. B. Root, J. Boness, Mr. Moore, Mrs. Jacobs, S. C. Gregg.

The following are the names of those who left on the 7:30 train: D. H. Dwight, D. Wilson, Miss F. Harrinean, Dr. Gunn, J. Kirk, E. A. Keller, J. Moiseenier, J. P. Phillips, S. Cohn, E. S. Pike, G. M. Andrews, H. M. Johnson, D. M. Murphy, S. Chapman, W. G. Halsed.

Chills and Fever. Malaria.

"Many cases of fever and ague, dumb sgue and congestive chills were promptly arrested and entirely banished by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. You don't say half enough in regard to the efficacy of this valuable medicine in cases of ague, intermittent fevers, etc. Every case has been arrested immediately. I was a sufferer for years with the liver disease, and only found relief by using the Regulator."—Robert J.

Weeks, Batavia, Kane Co., Ill.

Never Give Up.

If you suffer with chronic bronchitis, consumption of the throat, chest or lungs, you will be surprised at the rapid improvement of that will follow the use of a few bottles of Santa Abe's, the most valuable medicine in the world, guaranteed by C. H. Hance.

Salvation Meetings.

Every night at Nadeau basement, corner

First and Spring streets.

"Read me for my cause and be patient that ye may read."—SHAKESPEARE.

The Greatest Study of Mankind is Man.

The greatest study of mankind is man, and who e'er has his wondrous frame doth see in.

Persons devise to cure an ill,

Whether by device, fruit or pill,

An equal benefactor is he; and we hasten,

The inventor of a cathartic of delicious taste,

To do him honor.

Who e'er enters not by the distressed mother,

Her child's entreaties tries to smother,

That she insist not the horrid dose be taken,

The embracement e'en now does cause awake.

And fond father,

To be witness of his child's torture, would raise a high price.

If money could purchase Cathartic nice.

We have it now! and great Dr. PRATT's name

Appears upon scroll of Esculapian fame;

For a man's skill who would suit,

Has hit upon DELICIOUS FRUIT

To cure our ill.

At once with draughts and pills;

Whether it be indigestion, liver complaint, or

Gastritis.

Or any disease to which flesh is heir,

He with pride would only declare,

That on the assertion will wager big.

That it can be cured by a HAMBURG FIG!

At druggists, 25¢ a box. J. J. Mack & Co., S. F.

CURE for Piles.

PILES are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back and a desire of the abdomen to contract the rectum to support the kidneys or neighboring organs.

At times, symptoms of indigestion, flatulence, constipation, etc., may be present.

For these, Dr. PRATT's HAMBURG FIG will cure.

For piles, Druggists, 25¢ a box.

News Notes.

The Club Theater opens up to-night with a full company of star artists.

There was a meeting of the Medical Society at Dr. Widney's office last night.

Barley sowing in San Fernando will be completed to-day. The early sown grain is looking very fine.

A large number of people started yesterday morning for Colton to attend the citrus fair now in progress.

On next Tuesday there will be a pleasant social at the Long Beach Hotel and a delightful excursion to Santa Catalina Island.

Land is now being prepared for planting 20,000 fruit trees in San Fernando, and the trees are ready for the transplanting.

The McGibney family will give a sa-cred concert at the Grand Opera House on Sunday night for the benefit of the Church of the Unity.

Mr. Little, of New York, is erecting an elegant villa a short distance west of the residence of W. N. Monroe, on the upper road of Monrovia.

The Abbott boys and Wm. Maloney engaged in a battle in Chinatown yesterday afternoon, and were arrested by Officers Lemon, Moon, and Freeloch, and charged with disorderly conduct.

A baseball game will be played to-day for the benefit of John Heenan, the sprint-runner. Admission twenty-five cents. On Sunday afternoon the Black Diamonds and the Los Angeles club will play a match game.

The fire alarm sounded from box No. 62 yesterday morning, shortly before noon, for a small blaze in a restaurant on Commercial street, below Los Angeles, caused by the ignition of some roasted coffee. Damage nominal.

The Directors of the Hesperia Land and Water Company yesterday held a meeting and authorized the President to erect a granite hotel on the townsite, to cost $25,000. This is amusing to those who thought Hesperia was in a desert.

A new bank has been organized at Monrovia, but no site has yet been selected for the place of business. Monroe says there is no railroad from Monrovia to Canada for defaulting cashiers. Canada is quarantined by the authorities of Monrovia.

There will be a meeting of the Bar Association this morning at 10 o'clock, at which some name of a lawyer in this part of the State will be selected to present to the Governor for appointment to the Supreme Court in place of Justice Morrison, deceased.

Mr. J. H. Perkins, of Citrus, is in the city. Mr. Perkins reports things booming in that locality and says that the other day, when he was offered $375 an acre for his ranch, he was tempted to sell, but he thought better of it and concluded to stay by the old place.

Some silly people yesterday got an idea that they might in the sweet subsequently get the smallpox in Los Angeles and telephoned the Raymond for rooms, but some siller persons had been previously scared and captured the telephones, so they had to go to Santa Monica to soothe their fright by the sad sea waves.

The timber for the upper story of the new brick hotel at San Fernando was probably lost at sea about six weeks ago, as the vessel left Puget Sound nearly two months since. Several other lumber-laden vessels have gone to the bottom in the rude weather of the upper coast. As a consequence the San Fernandians are watching and waiting for lumber.

Personal Mention.

Charles Dudley Warner, the noted writer, is at the Nadeau.

Pat Kelly, a seven times millionaire, of St. Paul, is at the Nadeau.

J. L. Case, the owner of the famous Jay-See-See, is at the Pico House.

Mr. John F. Ponder, formerly of this city but now of San Francisco, is visiting here.

Monsignor Capel will leave for San Francisco on the 1:30 train this afternoon.

H. B. Hoyt and wife, of West Union, Ia., are visiting Los Angeles and vicinity.

W. A. Sawyer, railroad contractor of Santa Ana, is stopping at the Grand Central.

Mrs. E. H. Custer, the widow of the late gallant General Custer, is in Los Angeles.

Pio Macauvalen, traveling companion with Monsignor Capel, is at the Depot Hotel.

Mrs. W. B. Taylor, of Toledo, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lawrence, of Montreal, Canada, arrived in the city yesterday.

George Jones, proprietor of the New York Times, and his daughter, Mrs. Ireland, are visiting Los Angeles and are at the Nadeau House.

Judge Richard Egan returned from the Camulos rancho yesterday. He says Mr. John Forster is much better and is now able to sit up.

The family of Colonel H. H. Markham left Washington on Monday for Los Angeles. The Colonel will be obliged to remain about ten days to complete all unfinished business of the Congressional committees to which he belonged.

Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the healthy tone and vigor of the whole physical mechanism.

Mr. Quintaine's Opinion of Mullein.

Astebone and Verba Santa is a strictly good and safe medicine. A paper read before the Medical Congress of Copenhagen, says: "Mullein has greater power to cool the liver than any other plant equal to it." Kounski, of Odessa, has demonstrated that Astebone and Verba Santa is equal, if not greater curative power than Verba Santa. Astebone Cough Balsam combines the three best known Expectorants and Narcotics (which are optimum) making it the greatest and best Cough Balsam. Sold by C. F. Heinzman.
